

INFORMATION FOR INDIVIDUAL SUBSCRIBERS

For less than US$5 per week (₱250) you can keep ahead of the competition in being informed on this important Asian economy.

The Philippines Weekly Report provides a concise summary of those important political and economic developments that impact on international business operations in the Philippines or on companies seeking to do business with the Philippines. Each report provides a strategic assessment of the rapidly unfolding political climate and security situation as well as important issues of interest to the international business community. Typically these include commentary on investment conditions, incentives and decisions, reviews of major economic sectors and sub-sectors, consumer confidence and purchasing patterns etc. The Weekly Report is delivered by email and supported by an on-line databank that provides internet access to archival material and special reports.

The Philippines Weekly Report is designed for decision makers in industry, policy makers in government as well as professional consultants. In fact anybody who needs immediate access to reliable information on current conditions or who needs to brief others in his or her organization on such conditions. Our sole aim is to provide the information you need in timely fashion so that you and your organization can make the correct strategic decisions and improve your bottom line.
